

Lord, let us not lose sight of how far we have come, and help us have the hope that you'll grow us like you have for those out ahead of us.

Shape us through the growing so that no matter how near or far we feel from our dreams, we trust you anyway.

-Shaelyn Ellyson